

Key Demographic Information

During the fiscal year of 2009, 62 patients were admitted for medical rehabilitation. Demographic data shows that 33 patients were male, 29 were female, and the average length of stay was 21 days. The graphs below indicate patients by age group and diagnoses.

One rehab patient was transferred internally to our PICU for higher level of care. All 62 patients were discharged home.